

Acceptance Criteria	Expected Result/Output	Pass / Fail
A user is able to read each fact	When a user clicks on a question, a related fact is shown within a pop up	Pass
A user is able to navigate to each page	When a user clicks on a down arrow, they should be taken to the next page.	Pass
On the game page, navigation buttons are displayed for the user to see	User should see the navigation buttons they've pressed before they click go	Pass
A user navigates the rocket to the moon on the game page	Rocket should move according to the action buttons pressed by the user - once the go button is selected	Pass
A user should receive confirmation after playing the game	If the user has played correctly they will be told so and prompted to take the quiz. Otherwise they will be given the option to try again.	Pass
One question is shown at a time on the quiz page	User sees one question at a time, with 3 answer choices	Pass
User is told whether they have answered correctly or not	Confirmation will show if the correct answer is chosen, along with a next question button. Otherwise the user will be prompted to try again	Pass
Confirmation is received once the user has completed the quiz	A message displays once all five questions have been answered	Pass
A tally of correct answers is shown at the end of the quiz	A user will see how many questions they've answered correctly	Fail
Final page shows a certification of completion	If a user enters their name at the beginning, their name will show in the certificate. Otherwise a nameless certificate will show	Pass